

EXECUTIVE COACH   PROFESSIONAL FACILITATOR   COACHING MENTOR

Facilitator's Overview

Dani has over 20 years of experience as a coach, facilitator, and consultant, where she applies her passion of helping people realize and utilize their full potential.

She served as the Master Coach and Facilitator for a major leadership development organization, leading and mentoring 89 coaches and facilitators, and spent 21 years facilitating and coaching in the corporate space.

Dani has worked with clients in a variety of industries to enhance employee contribution and human growth. In the course of her career, Dani has delivered hundreds of workshops, both in-person and virtually. She has taught audiences of 2 - 250+ people, across a diverse set of backgrounds, core competencies, and experience levels. The most common theme in her facilitation feedback is her energy and ability to keep participants engaged, whether in-person or through a virtual screen!

Representative Engagements

- As a coach herself, Dani has taken her decades-long personal experience and made her facilitation of an ICF accredited Coach the Coach workshop come alive for participants. She effectively helped clients develop their coaching capacity and delivered this workshop internationally (live) as well as virtually.
- Dani facilitated approximately 30 multi-day in-person simulation-based trainings for the technology group of a major consulting firm. She was also involved in the development of the program and led the team of approximately 20 facilitators during multiple rollouts of the engagement. The result was an improvement in consulting, communication, and business skills for approximately 1800 participants over 10 years.
- Dani researched, developed and implemented the delivery of educational programs and group workshops for guests of a wellness resort, including creating content for and addressing a group of CEOs during a week-long specialty CEO program. This involved pre-assessment of needs and tailoring the presentation to the audience. She also taught programs on values, stress and holistic health.
- Over the course of her career, Dani has delivered debriefs and coaching on over one hundred 360 assessments, including the KF 360 tool.
